MANCHESTER

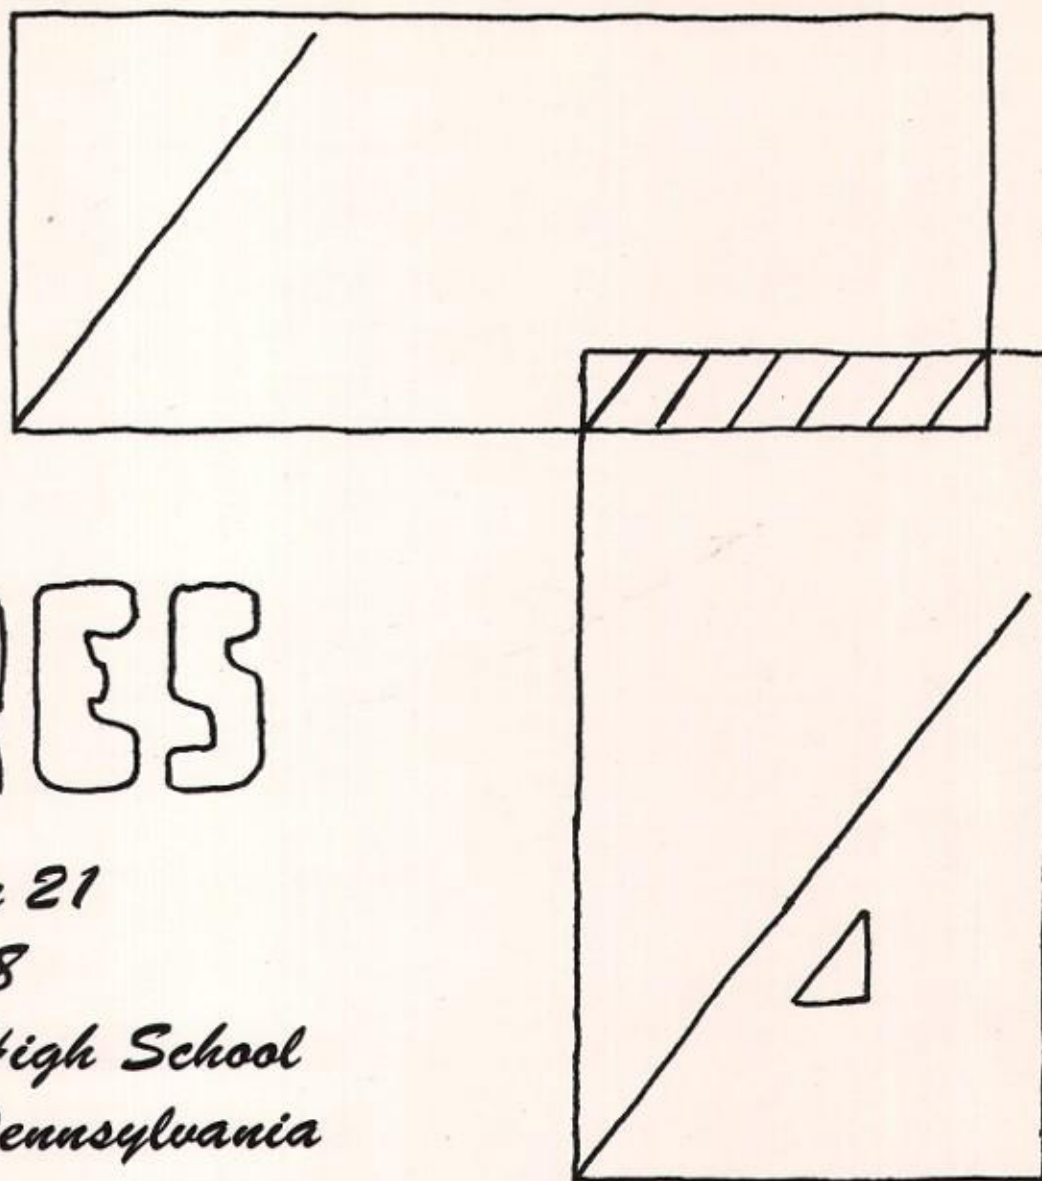

LES MEMOIRES

Volume 21

1958

*Manchester High School
Manchester, Pennsylvania*

Foreword

L'es Memoires, a French twosome of words which means "the memories," is used as the basic pattern of this, the 1958 edition of our yearbook.

The presentation is in the scheduled chronological order, which visualizes the school year as it happened.

"Repsac" our artists' conception of the ghost, Casper, is our symbol of memories, and will take you on a guided tour through the sections of the book. Fall and Winter activities are in the "first semester" section; Spring events are located in the section, second semester.

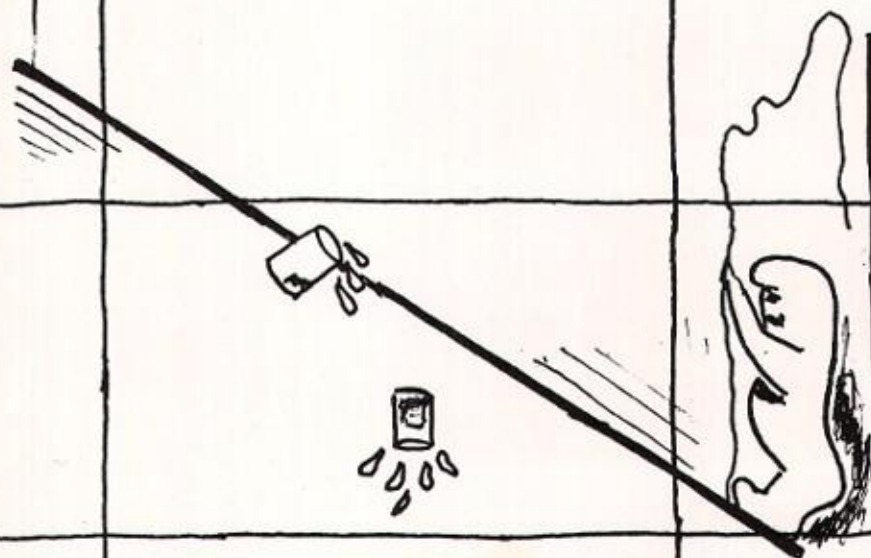

The "final exam" section includes the graduating class at serious and relaxed work.

Memories,—our title and theme, are what we hope you will experience with the book.

To your memories, our memories, and the memories of all thoughts of pleasant past experiences and hopes for former associates of Manchester High, we dedicate our inspirational future experiences.

Class Will

As we solemnly leave the years of Manchester behind with its many memories, we, the class of 1958, being of sound mind and body, do bequeath on the Wednesday, May 21, the following; To all who do not use the English language to best advantage, Mary Jane Sterner wills her Chinese vocabulary. Modest Don Humer gladly bestows to Gene Walker his money, brains, good looks, and extremely modest personality. Harriet "Crash" Boeckel wills all her first class wrecking ability to Witmer's Paint and Body Shop of Zion View. Richard Flinchbaugh gladly gives his three years at dear old Manchester High to anyone who wants to lead that kind of boring life. Nick "Heartburn" Fetrow gives his fishing rod and place on the bank to all hooky players. Sandy Hatterer leaves a slightly used set of chains to anyone else brave enough to park in the mud. Our Civil War hero from the deep, deep South, Larry Witmer, leaves his cavalry trousers and antique muskets to the Gray Ghost. William "Weasel" Ort leaves all his empty cases to the York Bottling Company in exchange for refills. Lois Hollerbush wills her love for black leather jackets and loud mufflers to the police throughout our state. Eva Bechtel bequeaths her "hot red Chevy power" to tired and worn, Esmirilda. Pepless Lewis Darr leaves his warm seat on Mr. Allison's washing machine to next year's manager. To all future Ice Follies stars; champion Stanley Ilyes leaves his weak ankles. That gasless and rattly blue Plymouth, Shana Crumling, politely leaves to Sally Brenner for transportation to M.H.S. Dorothy Anderson leaves to Ray Kohler her ability to clean caf. dishes so that Pepto Bismal won't have an increase in business when she leaves. To the "Memory Lane Riding Stables," Annalee Anderson wills her clever pony-tail. Martin Alloway leaves his talkative and helpful personality plus ambition to Barry Spangler. Robert Armstrong leaves his many trips to our rival, Central, to anyone who finds a deep interest there. Faye Bailey leaves her wild craze for roller skating to all those who wear out the roads to playland. Jean Buyp leaves all her laughs and giggles to the tired out comedians of the "Ed Sullivan Show." Barry "Gunner" Dolan leaves his warm seat on the bench to Glenn Seifert. George Glatfelter leaves his many "worn-out and forgotten theories" to Mr. Olshefski for future use in his profession. Joyce Gillen leaves her continuous pleasant personality and smile to next year's struggling seniors. Larry Horner leaves his nickname, "Pebbles," to his old employer, Willy Dauber, with his kindest complements. Robert Mitzel kindly wills Raymond Muth his ability to draw teachers pictures and his fear of chickens. Donald Crone leaves his "unused" chemistry book to Dale Benedick; long may he study! Michael Butcher wills his trophy winning bowling skill to Mr. Doll so that he, too, may someday win a trophy. Dona Hatterer leaves her "loose limbs" to all of Miss Bricker's future gym students. Ruth Ann Elvey leaves her place as captain of the cheerleading squad to Sherry Livingston. Juanita Hoover leaves her bragging power about Zion View to all the kids from this great metropolis so they can build up their town. Sharon Davin gives her "flaming red hair" to Mr. Brown so that he can replenish his supply. Petit Judy Hollerbush wills her small structure to Mary Ann Millar. Eugene Stover leaves his "real neat" Ford to Beshore and Koller to use in their display window. Paul Wilt leaves his enthusiasm and support to next year's seniors who greatly need it. Richard Brenner leaves his photographic ability to penniless Blatner. Benny Dolbin leaves his title of president to anyone who can fill the office as often as he did. Royce Fing leaves his love for all the girls to anyone who can keep such a heavy schedule. Marian Zirkle leaves her quietness and extreme bashfulness to all forward underclassmen. Jane Weigel leaves all her foreign money to Martha Zook for use on the European trip she plans to take after graduation. Dorothy Conley leaves her good study habits and grades to those "just making it" by the skin of their teeth. Ken Dietz leaves his title "Gumshoe" to the Goodyear Tire Company for advertisement. Jay

Hitz leaves his creative cartoon ability to all of Walt Disney's artists who need that personal touch to complete their work. Roger Hoffman leaves his early morning cigar to the Phillies Company for he is a walking advertisement. Brenda Bruaw leaves all the powder which she used for "powder wars" in the locker room to the Avon Company. Fred Hombach leaves his dart shooting ability and all his flat tires to all those who have that tired feeling as he does. Mary Ann Benyak leaves herself to Freud for analysis. Janie Brennenman leaves her "big feet" to the Haines Shoe Company. Barbara Dunkleberger wills her excuse blanks to the office for use next year. Astrid Ensminger leaves her clarinet ability to Benny Goodman. Judy Evans leaves her place on the Honor Society to Nancy Mayer. Mary Evans leaves her dislike for shorthand to Gregg so he can improve her technique. Janice Ferree leaves her ability to draw horses to the New York Museum where her pictures will soon hang. Elaine Forry leaves to any unsuspecting individual her place on the yearbook staff. Ronald Fritz we quietly leave to Daunc. Edward Fullen leaves his dented fenders to the safety education class. Harriett Shelley leaves her desire for a singing career to Norma Fries. Eugene Hanna leaves his "silent sentences" to Glenn Werking so he can keep out of trouble. Kenny Stevens leaves his busy suitcases and continued memories to anyone who is kept as busy as he. Edwin Smith leaves his knowledge of plants, animals, and space to our government to keep ahead of Russia. Joanne Sipe leaves the key to the ice cream cabinet to Gary Hatterer who has a keen taste for ice cream. Tyrrell Stahle leaves his "so often mispronounced name" to Webster to add to his New Word Dictionary. Lana Markley leaves her moans and groans to Ray Sterner for use next year. Wayne Stahle leaves his windshield crashing ability to the dare-devils of our highways of today. Fred Kunkle leaves his "to and from taxi service" to anyone from his home town with a car. Ken Pugh wills all he has to himself for he needs everything he can get. Dottie Krout leaves her pen and writing paper to Rosie Miller so she too can write every night. Maxine Lehman leaves her "continuous talking" to all future candidates for governor. Robert Miller leaves his seat at Millie's to anyone brave enough to take it from him. Robert Musser leaves his Mother's wonderful recipes to Betty Crocker. Carrie Schroeder gives her drums to Elvis Presley for background with a solid beat. Joyce Hively leaves her tips on the pictures to Warner Brothers to produce academy award pictures. Leeland Hoover leaves his nickname "Barrel" to all sneaky moonshiners of the Bald Hill. Sherry Jordan leaves her application blanks to the unemployment bureau. Russell Hoover leaves all the broken hearts to the Ricky Nelson Fan Club. Raymond Hoover gives his batting average to Mickey Mantle. Gary Jordan leaves his pitching record to Tommy Hombach. Gloria Lingg leaves her walk to school to all lovers of fresh air and cold. Betty Sanger leaves her tiny feet and quiet voice to Larry Wallace. Connie Sweitzer leaves her "threats to get her hair cut" to Ingrid Ensminger. Ruthanna Myers leaves all her old boy friends to the Lonely Hearts Club of America. Russell McCartney leaves his "little blue Ford" to the "Little Blue Man." Shirley Ann Morthland leaves her long hair to Shirley Laughman. James Nouse leaves his chair setting ability to anyone willing to work as hard as he. Brenda Repman leaves her Bermuda stockings to the Indians for colorful decorations. Ned Rentzel, terror of Highway 101, leaves his beat-up Buick to Mr. Crider. Howard Miller's knowledge of French is left to our American ambassador to that country. Dorothy Mann wills her taste for commercial subjects to next year's commercial students. Barbara May leaves all her late news broadcasts to the York Dispatch. Dorothy Miller leaves her cosmetics to Revlon for next year's stock. Theresa Miller leaves her wedding plans to Rose Caspell. Jerry Stough leaves her fond memories of M.H.S. to Dick Bowers. Beverly Smyser leaves her dislike for people to the Egyptian leader, Nasser.

Class Prophecy

"Repsac," our memory symbol, making like Vanguard, blasts off for a glimpse of M.H.S. '58ers.

Repsac's scientific mind groups the class members into catagories of professions, services, and retirement.

Shorthand "extra-ordinaire" is delved out daily by Faye Bailey, Dorothy Conley, Sharon Davin, Ruth Ann Elvey, Elaine Forry, Joyce Hively, Sherry Jordan, Lana Markley, Ruthanna Myers, Brenda Repman, and Marian Zirkle.

Repsac, in a devout cadence mood, views Robert Mitzel giving a Sunday morning sermon to Martin Alloway, William Flinchbaugh, Edward Fullen, Eugene Hanna, Dona Hatterer, Sandy Hatterer, Jean Bupp, Jay Hitz, Stanley Ilyes, Wayne Stahle, Larry Witmer, and Harriet Boeckel who are on a service base in East Siberia.

Etherized, our spirit hazily views Dorothy Anderson, Carolyn Schroeder, and Jane Weigel who are performing their duties as nurses at the York Hospital. Jane Brenneman is a medical secretary there.

Catagories of nature and science project George Glatfelter as the owner of the G & G Nurseries in Iceland with Robert Musser as his cultivator. Edwin Smith, biology teacher, academically demonstrates soil conservation.

Repsac rides with insurance salesman, Robert Armstrong, who stops at the farms of Lewis Darr, Kenneth Dietz, Brenda Bruaw, Eugene Stover, Ned Rentzel and Fred Kunkle, owner of Lieberknecht's Orchard.

Truth is stranger than fiction. Royce Fink is a dog catcher; Donald Humer, a zoo keeper; Leeland Hoover, clothes pin on nose, is the owner of the Cly Fish Market; William Ort is a tippy truck driver for Eddie Herr; Lamar Fetrow is working from 11 to 12 and exercising an hour off for lunch.

Clutching tightly to Repsac's sheet tail, as he conjures off to California, are Mary Ann Benyak, Eva Bechtel, Juanita Hoover, Beverly Smyser, Lois Hollerbush, Donald Crone, and Mary Evans.

Ghostly ear muffs are donned by Repsac for the musical presentation by Manchester's No. 1 dance band which is composed of Robert Miller, saxophone; Larry Horner, trumpet; Kenneth Pugh, guitar; Richard Brenner, drums; and featuring soloists Harriett Shelley and Kenneth Stevens.

Pirouetting, till his sheets whirl Repsac follows Shana Crumling across the stage, whose scenery was designed by Janice Ferree.

Refreshments? Sure—ice cream served by Joanne Sipe—B.S.—Associate directors: Annalee Anderson, Barbara Dunklebarger, Maxine Lehman, Gloria Lingg, Dorothy Mann, Dorothy Miller, Theresa Miller, Shirley Morthland, Betty Sanger, Constance Sweitzer with their spouses.

At the bar, law wise, is his honor, Barry Dolan.

"Toni specialists" Judy Holerbush and Judy Evans will have a special customer, airline hostess, Mary Jane Sterner.

Repsac helps engineers Benjamin Dolbin and Russell McCartney finish their bridge across the "River Kwai."

Raymond and Russell Hoover, the greatest brother team in the history of baseball, have just been informed of a new contract by telephone from New York operator, Astrid Ensminger.

Repsac, knocked sheet and all from the 10 pin, gazes with disbelief at Mike Butcher's 300 score.

Perched atop Jerry's pen, Repsac observes shorthand being taken at 200 words per minute as dictated by Jim Nouse, Manager, Andrews Paper House.

Harrisburg bound, Repsac encounters Dorothy Krout, Barbara May and Joyce Gillen, Civil Service employees at New Cumberland.

Placidly peering into a cylinder hole, Gary Jordan and Tyrrell Statle see two ghostly eyes, Repsac's.

Like a rocket, whose fuel is "caput." Repsac fades with a dimming trail.

In the bonds of old Manchester
 We will ever be
 And we'll cheer our own dear High School
 On to Victory!
 Alma Mater, Alma Mater,
 Hear us as we cheer,
 For that school in old Manchester
 Alma Mater dear.

Through the years that are ahead
 We will e'er be true,
 Though afar from thee we've sped,
 We'll come back to you,
 Alma Mater, Alma Mater,
 Our thoughts turn to thee,
 We will love, defend and honor
 This, our school, so free
